

Visa-Free Entry for 59 Countries: China International Consumer Products Expo Awaits You in Hainan

Recently, with an open attitude, Hainan Province in China has once again welcomed a new upgrade to its visa-free entry policy. Approved by the State Council, the reasons for visa-free entry to Hainan Province for nationals of 59 countries have been further expanded from February 9 from tourism to diversified activities such as trade, visits, family reunions, medical treatment, conferences and exhibitions, sports competitions, etc. (excluding work and study purposes), offering unprecedented diversity of choices!

This signifies that whether for conducting business negotiations, visiting relatives and friends, seeking medical assistance, participating in conference and exhibition activities, or even experiencing an exhilarating sports event, friends from these countries can enjoy the convenience of visa-free entry.

The visa-free entry allows a stay of 30 days, providing foreign friends with ample time to experience these activities and feel the charm of Hainan!

In April, Hainan will host a grand international event - the 4th China International Consumer Products Expo. As China's first national-level exhibition with the theme of consumer goods and the largest in the Asia-Pacific region, it not only shoulders the responsibility of showcasing domestic and foreign consumer goods but also serves as an important window for China to open up to the world and demonstrate its open attitude.

The event will be held from April 13 to 18 in Hainan. With the positioning of “boutique products”, the event will extensively invite plenty of internationally renowned enterprises to exhibit boutique “new”, “unique” and “special” consumer products, bringing together high-quality consumer goods resources from home and abroad, as well as global buyers and sellers. It will focus on global consumer goods and first launched and debuted products, and organize new product launches, international fashion weeks, and other activities. Ireland will serve as the guest country of honor for this China International Consumer Products Expo, while countries and regions such as Japan, Canada, Switzerland, Hong Kong, and Macao will also organize national and regional exhibition groups. During the event, Hainan will host a variety of cultural, artistic, and gourmet activities, allowing visitors to experience the national chic, island charm, and international style.

The introduction of this new policy injects new vitality into the successful hosting of the China International Consumer Products Expo. The new convenient policy will attract a large number of overseas exhibitors, buyers, and media to witness the splendid moments of this grand event together in Hainan.
